

American League Wins Exciting All-Star Game 6-5

Wild Ninth Sees Both Score 3 Runs

Americans Lead Throughout Entire Game

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The American League today upset the National League and won the 24th annual All-Star game 6 to 5. In one of the most exciting ninth innings in the history of the game.

Both teams scored three runs in the final inning, with the Americans having what appeared to be a comfortable margin when the National League came to bat. But Billy Pierce weakened, and needed assistance in retiring the side.

HE WALKED Stan Musial to start the ninth, and Willie Mays tripled down the right field line, scoring Musial. Mays scored on a wild pitch. Hank Foiles batted for Ed Bailey, and singled. Pierce then walked Gus Bell on four straight pitches and was pulled.

Don Mossi took over the mound and struck out Eddie Mathews. Ernie Banks singled to left, scoring Foiles, but Bell was out at third on a throw from Minnie Minoso. Bob Grim then came in to pitch to Gil Hodges, and ended the game.

THE AMERICANS started their scoring in the second inning. Mickey Mantle beat out a slow roller down the third base line for a hit, and Ted Williams walked on a 3-2 pitch. Vic Wertz singled to left, Mantle scoring and Williams stopping at second. Berra then walked, loading the bases.

Manager Walt Alston yanked his starting pitcher Curt Simmons, and sent in Lew Burdette. George Kell fouled to Stan Musial, and Jim Bunning popped to short center. Harvey Kuenn then walked, forcing in the second run. Nellie Fox fled to Frank Robinson to end the inning.

THE THIRD RUN came in the sixth, with Jack Sanford of the Phillies on the mound. Williams fled to Robinson. Bill Skowron doubled off the right field screen, and took third on a wild pitch. Yogi Berra singled, scoring Skowron.

They added three insurance runs in the ninth, off Clem Labine. Pierce singled off Schoendienst's glove, and McDougald was safe on Schoendienst's error. Fox sacrificed, advancing both runners. Al Kaline then singled to center, driving in Pierce and McDougald. Mantle struck out, but Minnie Minoso doubled against the right field wall, scoring Kaline. Skowron grounded out to end the inning.

The National League's first two runs were scored off Early Wynn in the seventh. Musial lined to Mantle, who made the catch after a long run. Willie Mays singled, and Ed Bailey singled off Fox's glove. Mays going to third. Gus Bell batted for Robinson and doubled to the left field corner, scoring both Mays and Bailey. Billy Pierce then came in to pitch and retired the side.

Official attendance for the game was announced at 30,693. Gross receipts were $122,027 and net receipts $104,349.62.

Rains and Winds Precede Heat Relief in East

By UNITED PRESS
Turbulent weather pushed across Ohio Valley today in advance of a cool air mass bringing heat relief to the East.
A severe thunderstorm with winds up to 63 m.p.h. pounded Indianapolis, Ind., during the early morning, and Pittsburgh, Pa., was doused by 2.35 inches of rain in the six-hour period Monday night and early today.

John L. Lewis Warns Against Police State

WASHINGTON (AP)—United Mine-workers President John L. Lewis warned Congress today that federal regulation of workers' welfare funds may be a step toward creating "a police state in truth and in fact."

"In the minds of the people I represent, there is no necessity for federal legislation of these welfare funds at any time," he said. "There is a necessity for increased prosecution of those who have been guilty of wrongdoing in connection with them."

BUT, LEWIS SAID, "We have laws for that; we have appropriations to carry out those laws." His statement was prepared for the House Labor Committee which is investigating present handling of the nearly 40 billion dollars invested by workers and their employers in welfare funds. In op-

New Annexation Action Asked Of City Council

A request for annexation of 1,109 acres of land near the city's north limit is under consideration today by the City Council.

Developer Dr. Charles A. Reagan requested that the city annex the acreage, located in Sections 36 and 31 and asked to address the council on the matter at its meeting tomorrow.

The request, read at yesterday's informal council luncheon, was recommended for deferral pending completion of the city's master plan, embodying zoning and annexation programs.

Planning Director Hy Ranes advised councilmen to consider annexation of all land adjacent to the city which can be built upon. If not, Ranes warned, property on city boundaries might get M-3 zoning and "anything can go in." For the best protection of orderly city growth and planning, it was suggested that city limits be broadened to conform with natural boundaries.

Atomic Test Moved Ahead To Thursday

LAS VEGAS (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission today revealed that it planned to fire its next atomic blast Thursday at 4:40 a.m. p.m. instead of Friday as previously announced.

The nuclear device was the one that turned out to be a dud June 29 and had to be disarmed by five scientists. The AEC indicated that the test was advanced 24 hours because it took less time than expected to reassemble the firing mechanism of the device which failed to fire because of a power failure.

Ike to Skip Week's News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will not hold a news conference this week.
The White House gave no reason, but it was noted that the President will have a busy schedule with the arrival Wednesday of the prime minister of Pakistan.

Natural Gas Bill Passes First Test

House Committee Gives It 2-Vote Victory Margin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The controversial natural gas bill squeaked through the House Commerce Committee today by a two-vote margin.

The measure would sharply reduce the federal controls that could be imposed on producer prices of natural gas. President Eisenhower vetoed a similar measure last year because of "arrogant tactics by lobbyists. He is said to be willing to sign the current measure.

CHANCES OF FINAL congressional action this year were, however, dim. The Senate is expected to take it up this session. Other congressional news:

Prisoners: The House unanimously condemned Red China for refusing to account for 450 U. S. servicemen still missing after the Korean War.

IT ADOPTED A resolution urging President Eisenhower to put more pressure on the Communist Chinese regime to say what happened to the men. The U. S. has evidence that all 450 were once prisoners of the Chinese.

Hells Canyon: House supporters of the proposed federal dam project in Hells Canyon on the Snake River have lost a key vote. Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.), ill in New York, said he will not give his proxy to Democrats fighting for the project.

Youths Admit Added Theft, One Candy Bar

Two Los Angeles teen-agers charged with auto theft and robbery today added another criminal score to their loot—a "hot" candy bar.

The boys, aged 14 and 15, were arrested here last week when their stolen auto ran out of gas on North Palm Canyon Drive. A purse stolen from a Los Angeles woman was also in their possession.

Detective Thomas Aitken said today that the boys later admitted breaking into several cars in Banning and Palm Springs, attempting to find money for gas.

Out of six cars clouted here by the pair, their total loot was one candy bar. They admittedly took a few miscellaneous, and worthless, items from cars in Banning.

They said they took the car in Los Angeles for the trip to Palm Springs. The younger of the two denied any part in the subsequent purse-snatching that netted $2.25.

Police Search For Burglars, School Looters

Palm Springs Police today searched for burglars who looted the high school office and unsuccessfully tried to break into Nellie Coffman Junior High School over the weekend.

Police said the raiders prowled through high school offices, but found only a few Mexican coins. Evidence showed the burglars rifled a cafeteria filing cabinet and storeroom, ignoring expensive equipment in an apparent search for cash.

Burglars also cut through a window screen at the junior high school, but failed to smash through the window. Officers believed the culprits might have been frightened off.

Police also reported two restaurants and two homes were illegally entered over the weekend but that nothing was taken.

State Defers Action on Drive Improvements

A city request for improvement of North Palm Canyon Drive has been temporarily shelved by the State Highway Department.

City Manager R. W. Peterson reported that state officials have deferred improvement of the street, from Tamarisk Road to Vista Chino, until it receives an overall traffic plan from the city.

State officials said they felt they could make no interim road improvements until the city solves the problem of bottlenecked through traffic.

THE STATE engineer's office stated it "recognized the advisability" of a traffic plan and noted that the Highway 111 Freeway under consideration by the state is included in the traffic study.

The city, now charting municipal traffic problems in mapping of the master plan, asked for widening of Palm Canyon Drive to 64 feet, with installation of curbs and gutters.

PETERSON SAID the Palm Canyon Drive Association would install palm trees and the city would contribute additional funds for improvement and beautification.

Scientists Discover New Element, No. 102

CHICAGO (AP)—A team of scientists from three countries today announced the discovery of element 102.

The joint international research team included scientists from the United States, Great Britain and Sweden.

The new element was discovered by bombarding curium, element 96, with carbon ions.

SCIENTISTS FROM Argonne National Laboratory represented the United States in the research project. Other members of the group were from Britain's atomic energy research establishment at Harwell, and the Nobel Institute for Physics in Stockholm.

Winston M. Manning, director of Argonne's chemistry division, said this was the first time any of the artificially-created elements had been discovered by an international research team.

American and British scientists proposed that the new element be

Golf Course Committee Selects No. 1 Site Location

A 300-acre site on South Palm Canyon Drive was yesterday tentatively approved as the "number one" location for a Palm Springs municipal golf course.

Located south of the flood control dike, fronting on Palm Canyon, the acreage was voted the best yet screened by the Palm Springs Municipal Golf Course Committee.

The committee unanimously authorized procedure on possible acquisition of the land, but ordered investigation continued and a list prepared on other acceptable sites.

THE ACREAGE tentatively chosen as "number one" in the eyes of the course committee was presented for approval by Councilman Ted McKinney, location committee chairman, at the organization's meeting yesterday.

McKinney regarded the land as desirable because, he said, "it is watershed area, unsuitable for subdivision; it is in a sheltered, comparatively wind-free area" and "70 acres held by the Flood Control District will be leased to the group for $1 a year."

However, McKinney pointed out, several "stumbling blocks" must be encountered. A large portion, he explained, is Indian tribal acreage and must be considered by the Tribal Council.

VIEWING THIS prospect with optimism, McKinney continued with the information that three parcels are privately owned. Bernard Brown, assisting McKinney, indicated that the owners would probably sell out at a "reasonable figure."

It was explained that since it is sub-marginal land, valueless for subdivision, it may be cheaply obtained.

"I think it is an ideal place," said Brown, echoing McKinney's views. "I think it will work out as soon as a few obstacles are overcome."

THE "OBSTACLES" to which Brown referred are ownership of the land. About 60 acres are owned by individuals, 70 are owned by the Flood Control District, and the remainder is "allotted land," McKinney said.

McKinney said he would meet with the Tribal Council in the near future. If the meeting has a favorable outcome, the committee will solicit appraisal of the acreage.

THE MEANS OF financing purchase of this, or any site, has not been proposed, but Golf Course Committee Chairman George Beebe felt that it would be possible to do it without increasing the bond or tax burden.

In moving approval of the site as the prime location thus far considered, Harry Paisley tagged on the note that other locations were to be viewed and listed for Committee consideration.

Beebe emphasized the point that this was a "tentative choice," and that other equally suitable sites may be strongly weighed, particularly if this one is difficult to obtain.

Boyd Announces In Favor Of Municipal Course

Seeking to clear up any "misconception" of his views towards a municipal golf course, Mayor Florian Boyd yesterday announced that he is wholly in favor of the project.

Boyd's announcement was made at a meeting of the Municipal Golf Course Committee through City Manager R. W. Peterson.

"Mayor Boyd asked me to tell the committee that although he has some qualms about a bond issue, he is completely in favor of a municipal golf course," Peterson stated.

Peterson explained that the mayor felt some doubt had been entertained locally on his views toward creation of the course.

Attack May Threaten Uneasy Peace

Israeli Cabinet Hears News While in Session

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—The Israeli settlement of Gonen was pounded by intensive mortar fire from Syria today. The bombardment is still continuing, an army spokesman said.

The Israeli Cabinet was in session when news of the attack reached Jerusalem. It had been called in special session to discuss foreign affairs problems in connection with the forthcoming European visit of Mrs. Golda Meir, the foreign minister.

TWO MINISTERS, absent from the meeting, were stopped by police on the road outside Jerusalem and told to return immediately.

The army spokesman did not speculate on what retaliatory action might be taken by Israeli forces, but it was believed certain that the Cabinet took the matter under immediate consideration.

IN PAST WEEKS, verbal charges have been hurled back and forth between the two countries on arms buildup, and on each country preparing to break the uneasy peace in the Middle East.

Diplomatic observers in the Middle East tension-torn countries awaited the Israeli Cabinet action, which might not be announced, but which could come in the form of troop movements.

Fire Destroys Bungalow, One Fireman Injured

An early morning fire today destroyed a bungalow at 247 Stevens Road, causing total damage estimated at $9,000.

One fireman was slightly injured while battling the blaze that gutted one unit of the La Siesta Bungalows, owned by Mrs. Esther Gilbert. Cause of the fire was attributed to a cigarette.

Occupants of the bungalow, Jess Autman and Eddie Boyle, were sleeping outside by the swimming pool when the blaze was discovered by an employee, fire department officers said.

Fireman Wayne Hollingsworth received a deep glass cut on his hand while fighting the flames and went to Desert Hospital for emergency treatment.

Damage to the building was estimated at $7,500, and contents destroyed were valued at about $1,500.

Three Banning Youths Survive Ordeal on Sea

Three badly sunburned youths returned to their homes in Banning yesterday after spending two days in 100-degree heat in the Salton Sea area.

One of the trio, Leonard Jost, 21, made his way, clad only in a bathing suit and with rags tied around his feet, across rough desert country to Truckee.

JOST THEN LED rescuers from a Border Patrol station to his companions, Dick Allen, 21, and Tommy Fritz, 26, both of whom were huddled under a bush near the shore of the Salton Sea.

Jost's father, E. D. Jost, said the youths failed to return from a water skiing trip which started Saturday.

Imperial County sheriff's deputies had found their car near a small cafe at Salton Sea Beach and reported it contained three pairs of shoes and slacks.

A WIDESPREAD search of the Salton Sea area was launched by deputies and a Navy helicopter was ordered, but no trace of the trio was found.

Jost said the boat they had used developed motor trouble Saturday evening and they drifted out to sea. He said they finally got the motor running, but ran out of gas a short time later.

All were reported unharmed.

BACKYARD RAIDER ESCAPES POLICE

An urgent report that a "strange animal" was pilfering her backyard quickly brought Palm Springs police to the home of Rose Levinson, 471 Tamarisk Road.

But police failed to apprehend the elusive stranger—a raccoon who hauled a load of figs off to his lair.

Cocktail Lounge To Be Opposed

An application for an on-sale liquor license permitting creation of a cocktail lounge at Milton F. Kreis drug store and coffee shop drew unfavorable consideration from the city council.

The application, introduced at the council's informal luncheon yesterday, was received with notice from planning officials that MPK has insufficient parking space to accommodate the proposed cocktail lounge.

City Manager R. W. Peterson said the lounge would have a seating capacity of 125 persons and would be known as the "Signature Room."

Official action on the application will be taken at tomorrow's regular council meeting, but it was indicated that the permit request would meet with opposition.

Attorneys Continue Task Of Segregationists Jury

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Attorneys were expected to complete a jury today to try John Kasper and 15 other segregationists in a proceeding that could set a pattern for federal segregation cases.

The opening day of the trial Monday was painfully slow with only 11 prospective jurors from a panel of 66 questioned and only four seated.

The prospective jurors faced three lines of questioning, from the government and the defense as well as a second line of defense, Kasper's lawyer, Benjamin Simmons.

WHILE ATTORNEYS for the 15 Tennesseans facing trial with Kasper have shunned any direct connection with the Yankee segregationist they were not hesitant to use his name to avoid seating a Negro prospective juror.

All 16 defendants are being tried jointly for criminal contempt of U.S. District Judge Robert Love Taylor's injunction not to interfere with integration of the Clinton, Tenn., High School.

At one point in Monday's proceedings, a Negro prospective juror was called after a bank cashier, a former peace justice, a retired Western Union supervisor and a matronly school teacher had been seated.

JUDGE TAYLOR held that the Negro, Albert Cloud, was a competent juror and prosecutor John C. Crawford Jr., accepted him for the government.

Then Robert L. Dobbs, chief of the dozen "anti-Kasper" defense lawyers went to work on the slender, soft-spoken Negro.

He got Cloud to admit he felt "unkindly" toward Kasper for "going down there and stirring things up" at Clinton after the court had ruled Clinton High must be integrated.

"I think I can keep up," Cloud said.

But when Dobbs rephrased his query about his feeling on Kasper, the Negro admitted he could not put the other "defendants in a sack and shake them up" with Kasper and come out with the same feeling for all.

"All right," said Judge Taylor, "I'll excuse you."

Two Sailors Die In Desertion Attempt, Belief

MONTEREY, Calif. — Autopsies were scheduled today on the bodies of two sailors who jumped to their deaths from the heavy cruiser USS St. Paul, apparently in an attempt to desert.

The Navy withheld the names of the sailors until their next of kin were notified. The incident took place Monday as the St. Paul sailed from Monterey at dawn for San Pedro.

Other sailors said the two men tossed a powder can full of civilian clothes into the water shortly after the St. Paul weighed anchor. Wearing life jackets and dungarees, the two men then dived in after the can and headed for Point Pinos, about a mile and a half away.

The fishing boat, "Two Brothers," found the body of one sailor about a mile off Point Pinos light-house. A Coast Guard cutter found the second body about a half-hour later.

The Clown Play Starring Fischer To Be Repeated

Due to popular request, "The Clown Who Ran Away," a comedy for young people of all ages, will be repeated by the Junior Players of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild, on Friday, July 12, at 7:30, and on Saturday, July 13 at 4 p.m.

The story of the Clown (played by Corey Fischer of Palm Springs) who deserts circus life to become a story-teller and becomes involved with live dolls, robbers and a horse who writes, was seen by a large audience as the first production of the Junior Players Company, formed for the first time at ISOMATA this summer.

The program is under the direction of Burdette Fitzgerald, Associate Professor of Drama at San Francisco State College and a national leader in Children's Theater.

Participating in the production besides Fischer are Jim Nixon, Michael Gifford, Mindi Macrae, Janet Sheldon, Jennifer Fox, Ann Koppelman, Karen Miller, Pearlaine Stein, Billy Gifford, Daniel Sherman, Carol Potter, Jerry Matthews, Rod Knight, Camilla Sheldon, Dennis Gifford, Glenn Pace, Marian O'Halloran, Lora Eisenberg, Sharon Matthews and Lora Steere.

The play is open to the public. Reservations and further information may be obtained from the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild, California.

Bank of America Passes $10 Billion Mark During 1957

A record of continuing growth placed Bank of America above the ten billion dollar mark today as total resources of $10,028,279,418 were posted in the bank's midyear statement of condition.

This figure, as of June 30, 1957, represents a gain of $306,661,913 since the same date a year ago.

President S. Clark Beise at the bank's head office in San Francisco reported that net operating earnings for the first six months, after provision for taxes, were $35,108,766 or $1.37 per share on the 25,600,000 shares outstanding.

"Although this amount is seven cents per share lower than for the same period in 1956," Beise said, "the net results evidence that improved income during the first half of the year has substantially compensated for added costs of the increased interest rates now being paid our more than four million savings depositors."

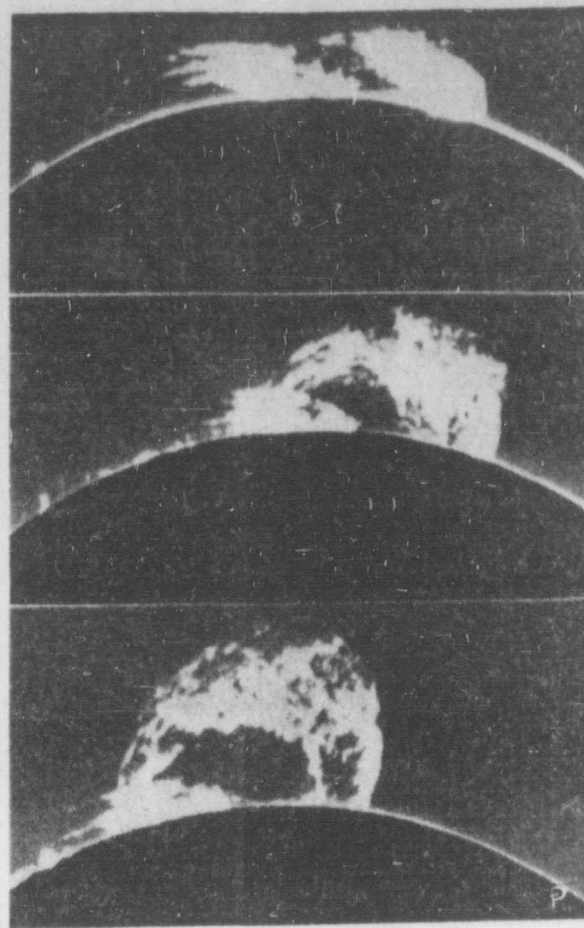

"It should be noted," Beise continued, "that savings and other time deposits have increased consistently since the first of the year and are now $282,196,595 higher than on January 1."

Total deposits of the statewide bank were reported at $8,937,226,893, or $438,245,509 greater than on June 30, 1956.

Idyllwild Annual Folk Music Conference

With the largest advance registration in its history, the Idyllwild Arts Foundation begins the annual Folk Music Weekend Conference on Friday in Idyllwild.

Classes and demonstrations will be conducted each day and a concert presented by the artists participating. Joseph Marais and Miranda, international balladeers, will appear in the Bowman Patio Theater on Friday, July 12, at 8:30 p.m.

Pete Seeger, nationally famous folk singer, and Robert LeHouse,

Sudanese dancer, will present a joint concert on Saturday, July 13, at 8:30 p.m., and to wind up the weekend. Pete Seeger, Sam Hinton and Bess Lomax Hawes will be heard on Sunday, July 14, at 2 p.m.

These artists will comprise the faculty for the two-week workshop in Folk Music which follows from July 8 to July 19. Sam Hinton, California Folk Singer and recording artist, will trace the origins of familiar songs, while Mrs. Hawes, an authority on folk instruments, will teach the playing of these instruments and demonstrate their most effective use.

Further information about classes and performances may be obtained from the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild.

Prunes Well Done

SCOTIA, N. Y. — (UP) — Firemen battered their way into the apartment of Mrs. John McGinn here after a gust of wind blew a door shut, locking her out and smoke began pouring from the windows. The firefighters burst into the apartment in time to turn off the flame under a pot of charred prunes.

MORE INSIDE...

The Big M is the roomiest car in its field. To match the Mercury Monterey's hip room alone in any other car would cost you at least $1,000 more. And behind the wheel, you can command Mercury exclusives like a power seat that "remembers" your favorite position, and a Merc-O-Matic Keyboard Control that outdates other push-button drives.

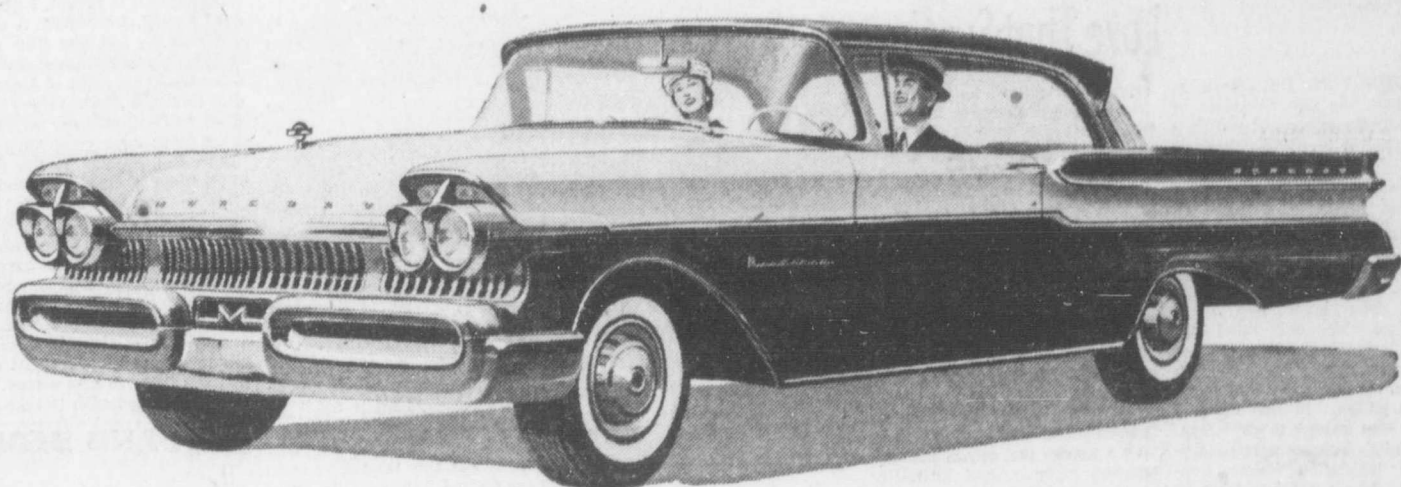

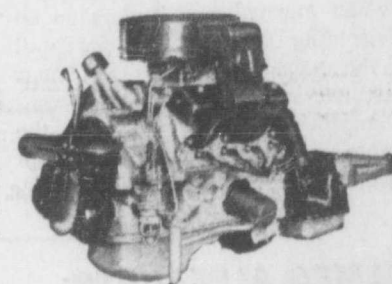

MORE OUTSIDE...

The Big M is the widest car in its field. To match Mercury's width you'd have to buy one of America's three most expensive cars, costing at least $2,000 more. And Mercury's Dream-Car Design is shared with no other car. In every distinctive feature, The Big M is styled to stay newer longer, protect future resale value.

MORE UNDER THE HOOD...

No other car at the Monterey's price gives you such high standard horsepower (255). To match this power in any competitive car, you'd have to pay over $150 more. The Big M gives you the highest torque, for a regular production engine, in its field (405 lb.-ft.). Mercury's standard compression (9.75 to 1) would cost you over $500 more in any other car.

...MORE WAYS YOUR BEST BUY

To the above facts add these: You have to pay over $200 more to get any other car with a real four-beam headlamp system, like The Big M's Quadri-Beam headlamps. Over $80 more to get a four-barrel carburetor as standard equipment on any competitive car. Over $130 more to match the Mercury Monterey's brake size. No other car at any price can match The Big M's Floating Ride—achieved with the most effective combination of bump-smothering features ever put between you and the road: for example, Full-Cushion Shock Absorbers and swept-back ball-joint front suspension. The Big M brings you the greatest value increase in the industry—yet the price is still just an easy step up from the low-price three. Stop in today!

The price comparisons stated are based on factory-suggested retail delivered prices.

SECOND CLASS CITIZEN

(Fiat River (Mo.) Journal)

Massachusetts has no major river basins. It gets its electric power from fuel plants, rather than hydroelectric installations. But, up to June 30, 1955, Massachusetts taxpayers had put up nearly $226 million for multi-purpose river basin projects.

How can this be? The answer is that the projects were built by government in other states, and partly financed with Massachusetts money. And what is true of Massachusetts is true throughout the country. About 20 per cent of the power users of this country get power from government plants. The remaining 80 per cent get it from independent utility companies — and they help subsidize the power bills of the 20 per cent.

They do that in various ways. Socialized power is wholly free of federal taxes. It is also either wholly free of local taxes or pays relatively small sums in lieu thereof. The socialized power projects get all manner of special privileges from the government, at the expense of the general taxpayers.

To make this sorry matter worse, socialized federal power is sold under a preference clause, which gives first rights to public bodies—municipalities, co-ops, public power districts, etc.—which also usually pay little or nothing in taxes. Customers of the independent utilities can have only what is left, if any. So they become second-class citizens in this—except when it comes to paying the taxes!

Socialism sure is expensive—both in money and in liberty.

VIRTUES PENALIZED

(San Jacinto (Calif.) Valley Register)

In these days when too many people are trying to get all they can for nothing, when our political leaders go on wild spending sprees to win friends all over the world and votes at home, when thrift and an honest day's work are long-forgotten maxims, when the indolent and poor are abetted by our government in taking pot-shots at the rich and successful, we think it well to present an editorial comment coming across our desk this week.

"Here in the U.S. we set high standards of achievement.

"Yet, when the rewards of achievement are won we reclaim most of them in guise of taxation.

"Achievement becomes not only financially unattractive but an actual burden.

"Success is admired, but the successful are penalized.

"Talent is admired, but the talented are penalized.

"Initiative is admired, but the initiator is penalized.

"Philanthropy is admired, but the philanthropist is penalized.

"Leadership is admired, but our leaders are penalized and harassed."

ARE THEY DELINQUENT?

(Sharonville (Ohio) Suburban Press)

Young people today have every right to resent the growing tendency to associate all teen-agers with "delinquency." Certainly we must be concerned about this growing problem, but we must also recognize the fact that the great majority of our young people are good citizens.

You wonder what "those damn kids" will do next? Well, if you look at the majority rather than the minority, you'll find that they are doing pretty well, so here's a salute to all the young citizens in worthwhile organizations — and to their leaders who are showing them the way to good citizenship.

CUT STATE TAXES TOO

(Fort Pierce (Florida) News-Tribune)

... It is obvious that many of these cut-the-budget letters which have been reaching Washington have come from Florida... the tone of the statements of the Florida Congressional delegation is proof of that...

The people of Florida are to be commended for writing to Washington. But why didn't some of them also write, or call, Tallahassee? They seem to have forgotten that we have State taxes, too... and that economy and reason in state government is also important!

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Love That Surplus

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Back in July, 1954, the new President in his innocence supported and then signed a bill to move American farm surpluses abroad. The surplus-removal law (Public Law 480) was written to run for three years and to exchange $700 million worth of our warehouse food and fiber for foreign currencies.

Well, you know how these things go. The only thing that really lasts in Washington is a temporary emergency. In 1955 the $700 million figure was upped to $1.5 billion. In 1956 the $1.5 billion was raised to $3 billion. And today—you've guessed it—there's legislation before Congress to hike the figure from $3 billion to $4 billion, and to extend this Share America law more or less indefinitely.

THERE WERE THREE avowed purposes when the law was first passed. It was supposed to be a pump-primer for the selling of American farm goods abroad. It was supposed to be a trail-breaker to new farm markets abroad. It was supposed to lift the foreign economies so that the foreign recipients would buy American manufactured products, like farm machinery.

Have any of these things come to pass? Not one. This surplus-removal program has not lowered the surplus level at home, and it has not created any free enterprise trade of any size. In the fiscal year ending last July, 41 per cent of our farm exports were under Government programs.

COTTON SALES abroad were 72 per cent Government-made, and dairy product sales were 71 per cent. You have to drop down to a specialized crop like tobacco, which is 14 per cent under Government programs, before there is anything resembling a free enterprise operation. And how about the projected sale of American machinery from those foreign currencies? The answer comes in this sentence of a House Appropriations subcommittee report: "There has been no conversion to U.S. dollars of foreign currencies generated from the disposal of surplus commodities and to purchases of farm equipment from such foreign currencies."

IN THE FACE of this undisguised failure of the program, it's a wonder that any of the supporters came around to testify for renewal—but they did, and in ways of considerable significance.

The Agriculture Department takes the viewpoint that the surplus problem still exists and that this surplus-removal program should continue for that reason. Assistant Secretary Earl L. Butz told the Senate Agriculture Committee that he favored dropping Public Law 480 as soon as the bins of the Commodity Credit Corporation ceased to overflow. The Administration has to keep one eye on the "have-not" nations which can always use farm goods, and the other eye on the "have" nations like Canada, Australia and Argentina which have farm goods for sale.

THE AMERICAN Farm Bureau takes a slightly different position. It claims that P. L. 480 is a success, not because of what it has done but because of what it has prevented. "Without P. L. 480," said John Lynn, the Farm Bureau's legislative director, "United States farmers' prices would undoubtedly have been further depressed by the accumulation of even larger surpluses."

Even so, the Farm Bureau which is the conservative wing of the farm bloc, agrees that the program should be ended as soon as possible. The shut-off date suggested by Lynn is 1959.

The National Farmers' Union will have none of this moderation. Reuben Johnson, spokesman for this left wing of the farm community, threw back his head in the committee room and gave full cry to the Share America philosophy. While he was about it, he began to tear down and demean his own country, in the usual manner of those who profess to love the "world" so much.

"THE UNITED STATES must learn," this Farmers' Unionist told Senators Humphrey and Aiken, the only members present, "to live as a good neighbor—not as a reluctant but demanding Big Brother!... it is morally wrong to permit starvation and malnutrition to exist anywhere in the world... is grounded in fundamental humanitarian considerations..."

We, in Washington, hear quite a lot of this tear-down, level-down sermonizing. It seeks to solve world problems by sacrificing America. But we don't often hear it used by a pressure group in such a naked case of self-interest. The Farmers' Union wants its 750,000 members to keep on raising surplus crops for sale to the Government, and therefore the U. S. Government should feed the world. Moreover, as this spokesman told the two Senators:

"The cost should be charged to the Nation as a whole, and not solely to farmers and farm programs."

How do you like that?

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Now comes the lull,
Just wait to do,
No special days
Until Nine-Two.

The Fourth is past. Ahead lie 51 days of relative safety on the highways. The next multiple holiday is Labor Day, on September 2. That will start Friday, August 30. A week later, another triple holiday for patriotic Californians, September 9, Admission Day.

UNLESS I MISSED something in the fine print in the Almanac, August is the only month which hasn't a holiday on which banks and public offices can close.

Don't call my attention to April. With few exceptions Good Friday falls in that month and banks and offices observe the Holy Day. March? Ask any good Irishman. Am glad that the holiday week is over. It was strenuous and I am just now recovering.

YOU SEE, my routine is not that of other good citizens. I work, (no comments, please) in Palm Springs so vacation elsewhere. We acquired a large, comfortable house at the beach for these off periods.

Once, in its career, it was a nursery school and according to law, all doors opened outwards. That posed a problem and we decided to re-hang them.

BECAUSE of the situation in the Building Trades, we agreed on a do-it-yourself operation. Judge A. D. Mitchell of San Bernardino Superior Court, being an ardent do-it-yourself devotee, wanted to assist.

So, on July 3, his calendar listing no felons at whom to scowl, he came to the beach loaded with tool kit and ambition.

His first ruling was that if you can't hang doors, don't hang around. Get the heck to Hollywood.

ALWAYS BEING the one to take a hint, I did. And got in on one of the most exciting events in racing history. I really didn't get in on it but I saw it. A triple dead heat. At that time they said it was only the second since they started improving the breed with benefit of wagering. Found out later it was the sixth. I say I didn't get in on it because my choice was far down the track, standing at the inner rail gazing at the Goose Girl, the lakes and the flowers.

SOMETHING ELSE odd happened in that race. The judge is no judge of horsemanship. All he knows about horses is that they buy four shoes at a time, jounce stout people around Dude ranches or are used as a medium for rating power under the hood. But wishing to join the fun, he laid down a heavy door, produced four pictures of Geo. Washington with the instructions: "Four on No. 4 in the Fourth."

No. 4 was the next horse back of the wire. But there were three noses on that wire. Too bad it wasn't the next day. Then I could have reported: "Four with four on him, finished fourth in the fourth on the Fourth."

When I got home the doors were all hung. It was a strenuous job. Sure glad the judge helped me.

INEZ ROBB:

Letters For U.S.

Recent reports from the nation's capital say that inner circles within inner circles in Washington are cottoning up to the idea of a national lottery as one more means of raising money to support the federal government in the style to which it has become accustomed.

Well, sir, there was a time when this intelligence from Washington would have made me bridle like Carrie Nation sniffing a cupful of basic bourbon. But inflation has weakened my moral fibre, and maybe—I'm not certain, but maybe—it might be wise to keep that Irish Sweepstakes money at home.

Interesting characters have sidled up to me in numerous nations from Cuba to Tierra del Fuego to Portugal to sell me tickets in the national lotteries and promise me wealth beyond dreams of avarice. I have a feeling that they sidled up to me in North Africa, too, but for the life of me I can't remember whether it was lottery tickets or "dirty postcards."

In the past my lofty moral scorn of such dubious methods of national financing have even withered the kind of characters who seem to engage in the lottery traffic, and take my word for it, that's a lot of moral scorn. These characters don't wither easily.

Perhaps I might not have been so susceptible to the prospects of a national lottery to pay off the mortgage on the vine-covered federal cottage, if I had not read of it almost simultaneously with a financial column that bluntly said "money costs more today."

And ain't it the truth, I decided after a spell of brooding. A dollar will scarcely get you fifty cents in today's market. In Canada, it takes $1.05 face value of American coin to buy $1. face value, Canadian. And up North our neighbors, great jokers, are complaining because Big Brother to the South holds them in economic bondage! They've got saddle sores from those solid-gold chains.

My moral fibre slipped another notch when it became apparent that Uncle Sam, with or without box tops, couldn't give away his long-term bonds in the present money market since he is unwilling to pay the high interest rates it takes today to hire money.

So a lottery began to take on a kind of rosy glow. Americans are great gamblers. Nor are we totally devoid of that human greed that makes man rejoice at getting something for nothing, or a lottery ticket. Naturally, the government would have to make the payoff prizes, say a million in cash as tops, exempt from all kinds and sorts of taxes. Otherwise, it would hardly pay to take a flyer.

The football pools in England are tax-exempt. In tax-ridden Al-bion such pool prizes offer practically the only way a citizen can make a stake or strike it rich. Britain has also copied the Scandinavian countries in offering savings bonds that amount, in the long run, to a form of national lottery.

Such bonds, in Norway and England, pay no interest. But every so often these respective governments draw bonds that pay off handsomely in the same way as a lottery. The top prizes are very substantial. There are also many number of smaller prizes that console the gambler; pardon me, investor.

Of course, the take or swag from the bond lottery is temptingly tax-exempt, too. And the investor whose bond wasn't drawn this time can always hope that Lady Luck will be with him at the next drawing, four to six months hence.

Our new Secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, could do worse than consider a straight-out lottery or lottery bonds. We might as well live it up, for as Punch put it recently and pungently, money doesn't seem to have any future.

EARL WILSON:

The American Riviera

NEW YORK — The B.W. and I went out to Westhampton Beach, L.I. — on the "American Riviera" — which is peopled with rich folks who have a hard time spending the interest on their interest.

Some of the women never wear mink because they think it's shabby. The men don't tip you off on what stocks to buy — but what companies to buy.

A Boston lady admired a couple of small cars — a Chevrolet Corvette and a Ford Thunderbird, which were allowed in.

"But you have a Cadillac," I mentioned to her.

"You can get pretty tired of Cadillacs!" she whimpered.

Huntington Hartford 3rd. Standard Oil heir Dick Cowell and his fiancée Gail Whitney, Temple Fexas, Dave Garroway, Eleanor Holm and her beau, the rich model, Vic Cutrer, the Max Liebman, Charles Addams, TV star Bobby Sherwood, and playwright I like V. Gazzo were there — and so was comedian Jack Carter and his gal, socialite water skier Anne Johnson.

Everybody was happy.

"Where are you staying?" I asked Carter whom I saw at Dune Deck.

"At P.G.'s Wodehouse," he lied.

I called a waiter at the Bath and Tennis Club. He didn't say "This is not my station;" he said, "This is not my restaurant."

It wasn't either; he owned two down the street.

It's the kind of place where young millionaires work as a hobby. Irwin Kramer, of the Hotel Edison family, took over the Hampton Inn and converted the Trade Winds Room into the beach's hot spot. So all Saturday night he headwaitered at the velvet rope and enjoyed it.

A customer, to get a table, tried to give him a $1 tip. "I couldn't take it," he smiled. He was so authoritative as saloon boss that he was promptly nicknamed "Toots Kramer."

Sign on a frankfurter stand: "Where man bites dog?" Phil Silvers phoned the Hotel Concord for a reservation. "My wife just had a baby — she had a rough time," he said. "Is the room for your wife?" he was asked. "Oh no," Phil said, "it's for me."

Elvis Presley has a big crush on Claire Bloom (whom he met at MGM) but the British star considers it merely very amusing.

Bob Hope and Paul Douglas are just great in "Beau James" (whether you like the Jimmy Walker characterization or not). Another Walker story: One morning after he addressed a foreign group, the chairman said, "I can tell from Mayor Walker's blood-shot eyes that he was up for hours studying our country's history for this speech." Jimmy nodded; he'd been at a party all night and hadn't been to bed.

Barbara Britton's very flattered at the way her sponsor keeps auditioning girls to be her understudies. "Do they have much to do with it if they like her at the auditions?" I asked Barbara. "I think they have more to do with it if they see her on the air, and don't like her," replied Barbara. "Sammy Davis Jr., the fashion plate, is bursting out into cardigan dinner jackets. Orders six at a time."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Hope, Dinah, Kim Novak Lined Up

HOLLYWOOD—Bob Hope, Kim Novak and Dinah Shore are poised to appear on Frank Sinatra's first TV show this fall—and who's going out to the movie THAT night?

Constance Bennett is the belle they're beckoning to fill Roz Russell's shoes in the road company of "Auntie Mame"... Miss Russell arrived from New York after a blockbusting 11 months on Broadway in the show. She's taking a month's vacation. Says she: "The air-conditioning in the theatre we've been playing in, I believe me, just a tired old ice cube left over from somebody's highball—so I'm just going to sit in my nine swimming pools here in Beverly Hills for four weeks and fan myself with my royalty checks!"

MIKE TODD PAID Aly Khan $27,500 for a Degas, a Utrillo and a Caroux. After Todd signed the check, Liz Taylor said, "Let's get outa here—I wanna go shopping"... Sir Laurence Olivier's remark re his last birthday "I'm not sure I like being 50."

Italian Exodus: Anna Magnani finished "A Woman Obsessed" and trained East with 26 pieces of luggage, including five trunks, and Sophia Loren finished "Desire Under the Elms" and planned East with a suitcase and an overnight bag.

The Communist Party of Los Angeles County is listed on Page 300 of the new Los Angeles phone book so Steve Cochran is asking for equal time for the Republican and Democratic Parties in the Moscow phone book... Today's kids are so hip, says Bob Cummings, they don't even believe that storks bring baby storks.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE, minus her oldtime curls, sported a fancy new Italian haircut at the party tossed by NBC-TV to launch the filming of her new fairy tale series, which you won't be seeing on the telecasts till next Jan. 12... Shirley isn't acting any more, just narrating. She said she accepted the job because: "I won't have to be away from home to do it—and my home is my main interest these days."

Not even one movie? I asked. Shirley said, "Well, maybe one—if they can shoot it in a day!"... I also asked if any of her three children will be in her fairy tale shows. She replied, "Not if NBC has ushers strong enough to keep them off the set!"... Shirley, incidentally, is vice-president of the mother's club at the private school her daughter Susan attends—and Susan is president of her class!

TV TOPICS — Ring Dem Bells — Sid Caesar may be back in a filmed hour-long weekly comedy series next season after all. And even though Nanette Fabray protests she'll never ever again do another weekly 60-minute show, I keep wondering if Sid's ex-TV-wife Arden does protest too much.

Eve Arden has hired 15 writers for her new teleseries, based on Emily Kimbrough's "It Gives Me Great Pleasure." I repeat — 15 writers! Eve is taking no chances. Shooting starts at Desilu July 24... Bob Hope's comment on Bob Hope's acting in the Paris-shot "Paris Holiday": "American ham, French cooking."

NOT TOO MANY moons ago when Bing Crosby cleared his million-dollar throat and stated flatly that he thought it a mistake for any movie star to do a TV series, Joan Crawford hotly contested the point. Joan, who was making a TV pilot at the time, said she didn't see how participation in a teleseries could possibly affect a movie star's impact at the nation's boxoffices.

Since that time, Joan has had a complete change of heart. Now she tells me: "I've never seen such horrible stuff as I have on the TV screen this past season—and they say movies are bad! I want nothing more to do with TV, live or filmed. I appeared on one of NBC's 'Tonight' shows this year and it was a fiasco. I have never seen anything as disorganized as that show was. As for a filmed series — there just aren't enough good properties—and I'd be crazy to ruin my health working in a series with bad stories!" Aw come on, Joan!

Danny Thomas and his new TV wife, Marjorie Lord, are honeymooning in Las Vegas with their three youngsters but you won't see the film footage on all this until the fall... Joe E. Lewis says "The Joker Is Wild" is a very controversial picture—already it's been banned by Alcoholics Anonymous!

their Mexico City holiday. The Burnhams will remain in Guadalajara until Sept. 15 while Vegay attends classes there. (David R. Koehler Associates Photo).

Sex Revealed Instead of Sex Concealed Is Back in Style

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, P. — Sex revealed instead of sex concealed is back in style.

And hemlines hold the status quo for daytime, but for evening attire are erratic.

The new fall and winter evening fashions kill off that demure look of last year when every designer came under the Edwardian influence of "My Fair Lady."

Now, the designers' assault is on as much come-hither as the censors will allow. Necklines are cut to new depths, fore and aft. Evening skirts are slit to reveal legs to the knees. Dresses with tailored shirt fronts have no back whatsoever. Others with high necklines have the fabric slashed out at back and side to reveal plenty of skin.

FABRICS AND silhouette go along with this trend to every-girl-dressed-like-Marilyn-Monroe. Clingy crepes, sequin and bead ornamentation all are back, just like in the Gilda Gray days of the 1920's. And the slinky sheath shows throughout all collections.

What's new for fall and winter is being previewed now for 200 fashion reporters in town for the 29th semi-annual Press Week. Thirty-three leading designers, of the couture group of the New York Dress Institute, and assorted auxiliary members who manufacture millinery, cosmetics and other accessories, are displaying their new wares.

Fortunately for the woman worrying about what will hold over from last season, there is no drastic change in the daytime silhouette.

THERE IS WHAT the designers call an "easy" cut to daytime fashions; suit jackets, for instance, aren't nipped in tightly at the waistline but fit loosely through the bodice and end up hugging the upper hipbone.

Skirts are slim but provide walking room. In many cases, this comes about from slits at the hemline—slits built over a foundation of the same fabric, so that neither leg nor princess slip is exposed.

As for hemlines, the daytime lengths are the same as last year. For dressy occasions, some costumes reach the ankles or the floor, fitted nearly to the figure all the way down.

BUT THERE ARE plenty of cocktail and evening dresses with uneven hems, some of them short as a daytime dress in front and cut to fall just a little lower, thanks to a fan-like inset, at the back. Or some go all the way to the floor at the back. Others feature the wrapped skirt, draped much like an Indian sari to leave walking room.

Here are some other trends you will want to watch when you're doing fall and winter shopping: —"Regal" silks and satins in evening wear, showing the influence of the forthcoming visit of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip.

—Plenty of trim—fur, beads, buttons and bows—on everything from sweater to evening dress.

—The bias cut in sheer wools and silk crepes, a cut which the late French designer Vionnet made famous.

—The sailor influence, with the middie over-blouse used in both daytime and evening costumes.

—Suit collars that are flat, and standing away from the neck to leave room for necklaces.

Love Makes the World Spin in Play at Padua

While poets contend that love makes the world go 'round, it spins in topsy turvy manner when The Mexican Players present their delightful new three-act comedy at Padua Hills Theatre.

"Los Novios" translated means the sweethearts, and features lovely Conchita Gallardo as the jealous wife, Luis Abundiz as the amorous husband, who is captivated by his wife's beautiful cousin, Berta, the flirtatious one, played by Vida Amador.

Sprinkled throughout the production are some of the most beautiful songs and dances ever presented at Padua Hills Theatre, as well as a salterio solo performed by Blas Romero Tellez, one of the few players of this difficult instrument now appearing in America.

The play is an original comedy within by Eligio Herrera, theatre director at Padua Hills, who is creating his third play this year has achieved real status as a playwright.

Top performances are also given by Joe Gracian, colorful dancer, who as the son does a comic role in giving a lingo performance that disgraces his parents to the consternation of all concerned. Rogelio Alfaro, Manuel Gonzales and Maria Abundiz all turn in creditable acting assignments in this play that is being staged during the celebration of the 25th anniversary of Padua Institute.

"Los Novios" is staged nightly at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday followed by Jamaica. Matinee performances are given Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2:30.

Mullers Plan Coast Tour

Packing up for a highway vacation jaunt to Seattle next week are the Frank Mullers, owners of the Las Palmas Hotel and Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller, accompanied by daughter, Mary Lee, will leave for a West Coast tour in their air-conditioned auto July 15, returning "when it cools off."

McGrews Leave for High Sierras

Off on a three-week camping trip in the High Sierras today is the family of Palm Springs Artist Brownell McGrew.

The campers, including Brownell and Ann McGrew, and daughters Gail, Becky and Jill, left yesterday, motoring deep into the Sierras. They plan to hike to their favorite camping ground with pack burros for three weeks of "comfortable" living under the open sky.

Mrs. McGrew, secretary to City Manager R. W. Peckerson, said the family will be back home by August 5.

Roy Bradley At Pump Room

Roy Bradley, well known restaurant manager in the Palm Springs area, is currently in charge of the well known Pump Room in the San Fernando Valley.

Among recent Village visitors who stopped in to say "hello" were Mayor Florian Boyd, Fred Ingram, Hoagy Carmichael, Sunny Sund and Bud Bachold.

Mrs. Sarah Freedman Starts This Week on Cross-Country Vacation

Leaving Palm Springs this week on a cross country junket to visit families of her son and daughter is Mrs. Sarah Freedman, manager of Henry Frank's Gift Shop here.

Mrs. Freedman is planning to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freedman, and her new granddaughter, Amy, at their home in Atlantic City, N.J. On her way, Mrs. Freedman will stop off for a weekend at Las Vegas with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Schwartz. Mrs. Freedman said she hopes to spend three weeks in New York and Philadelphia before returning to the Village.

Nat Burkett's Leave on Trip To Vancouver

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Burkett, 1346 Paseo de Marla, left this week on an extended motor trip to British Columbia, with stops at Vancouver, Lake Louise and Banff.

Their granddaughter, Jennifer Burkett of Los Angeles, will meet them in Seattle, traveling there by plane, and will continue with them on their trip.

There is a definite trend away from using sets, or suites of furniture.

DON'T BUY ANY CAR BEFORE YOU DRIVE A CHEVY... ITS BEST SHOWROOM IS THE ROAD.

Beauty in motion—Chevrolet Bel Air Sport Sedan with Body by Fisher.

Here's why Chevy's best showroom is the road!

Because Chevrolet's sleek good looks, its advanced features, are only part of the story. The big bonus is its remarkable roadability, the crisp precision handling that has posted an entirely new standard for cars in every price class. You can't read about that... but you can feel it in one minute on the road!

Good drivers know roadability is the single thing that means more driving satisfaction for more thousands of miles than anything else. More safety, too, for it grants greater stability on curves, greater traction on wet roads, better "bite" under hard braking, more accurate steering. There are reasons for all this, of course: Chevrolet's balanced weight distribution that takes excessive loads off the front wheels, the wide stance of outrigger rear springs, Ball-Race steering, spherical-joint front suspension. Sure, you can admire the sculptured lines in the showroom. But Chevy's a car specifically designed for beautiful motion—you have to travel in this one to know just how terrific it is. Try it, this week!

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP) — A piece of Wimbledon silverware parlayed with the Yankee dollar finally paid off today with the revelation that Assue tennis star Lew Hoad turned professional three months ago.

The time in between has been consumed by what promoter Jack Kramer calls a "secretive game of cops and robbers." Actually it was a cloak and dagger opus which was more of a who-cares-than-a-whodunit.

Technically Hoad has been a pro since April 17 and his sole aim since that time was to win at Wimbledon for an extra $25,000.

HOAD STOPPED to see Kramer en route to Europe and at that time they put the deal on paper and shipped it to Hoad's attorney in Australia. Kramer offered him $125,000 over a two-year span if he won at Wimbledon; and only $100,000 if he lost the big one in Britain.

Hoad was examined by Kramer's doctors to see whether the blond bomber was pulling a fast one because of an arthritic condition and pronounced a good gamble. Hoad went to Europe, worked out the kinks in his sore back and arm, breezed at Wimbledon and came back to pick up the marbles.

ALL OF WHICH means that, barring an actual signature, the agreement was in the bag that the amateur fathers were holding. Hoad takes a very matter of fact view of the whole bit.

"I have to get mine while I can," he admitted, looking very little the polished pro in his tieless shirt and brown suede shoes sans socks. "I never know what this back of mine will do."

Kramer is, of course, too smart to be caught off base. He has an escape clause permitting cancellation of the contract if Hoad comes up lame and halt for a period of four weeks.

"BIG JAKE'S" oyster isn't filled with pearls, however. Pancho Gonzales, the world professional champion, takes a dim view of Hoad turning pro at this point. His fear is that Hoad will take a cuffing in two tournaments ahead as well as in a European tour with Ken Rosewall, Frank Sedgman and Pancho Segura. Thus the shine would be off the apple when Gonzales opens a 100-match tour against Hoad in Australia come January.

There has been much talk between Kramer and Gonzales dealing with possible contractual lawsuits and appearances before "the man in the robe." All probably will be straightened out in good time.

Boys Club	4 5

Scores Monday
Cameron Stars 4, Hathaway-Buick 3
Boys Club 9, Junior Police 5

Little League race became a four-team event last night in Polo Ground action as the two top teams were defeated. The Cameron Stars dropped Hathaway-Buick 4 to 3, and the Boys Club routed the league leading Junior Police 9 to 5.

The loss by Hathaway-Buick dropped them into a three-way tie for second place, two games behind the Junior Police.

THE STARS WERE saved by the bell in their game as Hathaway-Buick had gone ahead 8 to 4 when the game was called due to time limit and the score reverted to the previous inning.

The Stars scored all their four runs in the second inning when singles by Glenn Christian and Paul Poist sparked a rally.

IN THE SECOND game the first six men up for the Boys Club scored, and they went on to take a 7 to 2 lead at the end of the first. Singles by Rick Schuman and Bob Moss led the way.

The Junior Police added its other three runs in the third, but the Boys Club came back with two, and went on to an easy victory.

Chestnut Named Fighter of Month

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Like Chestnut, fifth ranked featherweight from New York, today was named fighter of the month for June in Southern California.

The Southern California Boxing Writers Assn. selected Chestnut for the honor on the basis of his eighth-round knockout over Kid Anahue June 30 at Olympic Auditorium. The bout also was tabbed as the fight of the month.

Colts Defeat Colton Team In Game Here

Palm Springs Elks' sponsored Colt League team beat back a visiting Colton team 8 to 4 in action at the Polo Grounds Saturday night.

The visitors had 11 hits to five for the Villagers, but winning hurler Leroy Segundo kept them well scattered. The Colton squad scored once in the third, twice in the fourth, and one more time in the sixth.

Palm Springs took a 3 to 1 lead in the third, paced by Joe Lewis' triple.

Segundo struck out 10, including three batters in the last inning.

Pete Rademacher Offered $10,000 To Meet Miteff

NEW YORK (AP)—Promoter Ted Brenner offered Olympic heavyweight champion Pete Rademacher $10,000 today for a Madison Square Garden fight next month with Alex Miteff, who registered his 10th straight victory Monday night.

Young Miteff of Argentina won a technical knockout over Fernando Fala of Philadelphia at the end of the second round of their TV bout in St. Nicholas Arena.

Brenner of St. Nick's wired the $10,000 offer to Rademacher, who is training at Houston Lake, Ga., for a tentatively scheduled title fight with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson at Seattle, August 22.

Monday night, Miteff's left hook ripped a 15-stitch gash in young Fala's right brow. It bled so badly and Fala was so groggy when he went to his corner that Dr. Samuel Swetnick stopped the bout before the bell could ring for the third round. In New York state it was a second-round TKO.

Moore-Anthony Title Bout to Be Settled Today

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Representatives of singer Frank Sinatra today hoped to put the finishing touches on arrangements for a light heavyweight title bout between Archie Moore and Tony Anthony here early in September.

Attorney Jules Covey, who represents Sinatra, was in conference Monday with Moore, who drove here from his San Diego, Calif., home and with Anthony's manager, Ernie Braca, and his adviser, George Gairford, who is Sugar Ray Robinson's manager.

Covey said he hoped to be able to submit documents to the California Athletic Commission today which "would indicate that we have arrived at a meeting of minds on this matter."

Covey said he planned to telephone Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York Athletic Commission and the World Championship Boxing Commission, to report on the status of the negotiations.

Helfand Monday denied reports that he had stripped ancient Archie of his 175-pound title.

Cubs Shortstop Is Shining Example--Good Field, No Hit

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Jack Littrell does everything in major league fashion, except hit.

That's why the new Chicago Cubs shortstop tries something new every time he steps to the plate with a bat, and why he works overtime in the practice cage.

"I hit real well the last half of the season with Portland last year," he said. "Must have hit about 350 with about 18 home runs. But I don't have movies of what I did then, and I've tried to hit the same way here that I did there, and it doesn't feel natural."

LITTELL, 28, SAID he used a closed stance when he had his hitting splurge with Portland to finish the season with a .307 batting average, the only time he's been over .300 in nine years of professional baseball.

"I don't know why it hasn't worked here," he said. "I've tried to open my stance for a few games and then go back to the closed stance, but it hasn't worked yet. If I ever get to feeling natural, I'm sure I'll hit."

CUBS MANAGER Bob Scheffing rates Littrell as top grade in all phases except with the bat. "He's got a good arm and can make a good throw. He's fast, and he makes all the plays at shortstop. And he's thinking too. He won't hurt you in the field. But I wish he'd hit better."

Scheffing has been working with Littrell on his batting whenever he gets a chance. But that's rare. "He can hit a long ball when he's right," said Scheffing, who managed in the Pacific Coast League himself last year and saw Littrell when he was hot. Littrell last week got his first major league home run against Pittsburgh, but his average with the Cubs has hovered around .200.

DESPITE his failure with the bat, Littrell hasn't pulled down the wrath of either the Cubs fans or the baseball writers. They respect him for his fielding and he gets cheers frequently for his play in the field.

But when he comes to bat in late innings with men on base and the Cubs behind, Scheffing usually puts in a pinch hitter, and nobody questions his judgment.

Nobody's going to take his job away from him either. The only other shortstop the Cubs have is bonus player Jerry Kindall and he has shortcomings both at bat and in the field.

The clubhouse should remain in this position without any change until you have completed the arranging of your feet and posture. This is the best way of placing your feet at the right distance from the ball, also in the proper relation to the line of flight.

It affords you better posture and other advantages in your starting position. It means better alignment for a successful swing.

Alston Adds Mystery to Star Game

Delays Naming Starting Hurler Until Game Time

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

ST. LOUIS (AP)—National League manager Walt Alston added a tinge of mystery to the 24th annual All-Star Game today by deciding to wait "until just before game time" before naming his starting pitcher.

The Brooklyn Dodgers' pilot first leaned towards Curt Simmons, the Philadelphia Phillies' comeback left hander, but indicated Monday night he might give the assignment to another southpaw, Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants.

"I REMEMBER how all Antonelli pitched for me in the All-Star Game last year, and I have a feeling he might turn back those American Leaguers more effectively than Simmons," said Alston, who added, "I might not make up my mind until just before game time."

American League manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees declined to engage in any such guessing game. Ired over his non-to-glossy All-Star record—he has been beaten five times in six tries—Stengel selected Jim Bunning, the Detroit Tigers' side-arming right hander, as his starting pitcher. Bunning has won 19 games and lost two this year.

SIMMONS HAS posted eight victories and lost four for the Phillies this season after being considered "washed up" last year. Antonelli's record is a mediocre 7-7, but Alston still can't forget how the nifty Giants' lefty tossed in last year's 7-3 NL victory at Washington.

During a four-inning stint, Antonelli held the American Leaguers to four hits and yielded no runs and no walks. If he is chosen as the NL starter, Simmons probably will be by-passed by Jack Sanford of the St. Louis Cardinals for the middle three innings.

FOR HIS SECOND hurler—no All-Star pitcher is allowed to work more than three innings—Stengel indicated he would call on the Baltimore Orioles' Billy Loes. He would then have two lefties—his own Bobby Shantz and the Chicago White Sox' Billy Pierce available for the late innings.

In naming the remainder of his lineup, Stengel, along with Alston, had no choice except to arrange the batting order. The other eight starters were determined by the fan poll, although baseball Commissioner Ford Frick scratched two Cincinnati players from the National League lineup because of a late-hour avalanche of votes by Redleg fans.

The National Leaguers, victors in six of the last seven classics, remained a slim 6-5 favorite for this latest renewal before a sell-out crowd of 31,000.

This will be the last game of third round action, except for makeup contests.

Office of the City Planning Commission
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Palm Springs, California, will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, August 1, 1957, at 2:45 P.M. in the City Council Chamber, 300 McCulloch Way, Palm Springs, California, in the City of Palm Springs, County of Riverside, State of California.
The purpose of this hearing is to consider the application of the Community
Church of Palm Springs for a Conditional Use Permit to enlarge the existing church facilities for Sunday School and other necessary uses, on lots 6, 7, 8, and 9, Block 7, Palm Springs, and generally located along the west side of Catalina Road between Baristo Road and Arena Road.
This notice is being sent to all property owners of record within 400 feet of the aforementioned property. Opportunity will be given at said hearing for all interested persons and the general public to be heard.

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boudreau (Jo Lantz) have gone on a belated honeymoon. This popular couple were married in February but business interests make it impossible for them to get away. Ernie is the genial and popular manager of Shadow Mountain Club and Jo and her trio were making music at Thunderbird all year. Las Vegas will be their first stop, then north to San Francisco and the Bay area.

Ken Roberts, son of Mrs. Helen Roberts, has left for his stretch in the army. Last word was that he was in Fort Ord but that the expected to be there only a short time. His next address will be Washington, Texas or Colorado. Ken is a graduate of the Coachella Valley Union High School and was in his second year at San Diego State College. His brother, Bill Roberts, has a summer job in Portland, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robbins have returned to the desert to live after a very interesting trailer trip. This trip included New Orleans, Texas, Florida, a plane trip to Havana, then on up to Washington, D.C., where they left their trailer and flew to New York. Picking up their trailer again they went to Chicago, on to Colorado, and Oak Creek Canyon, Ariz., where they did some fishing. After all this Palm Desert is the best.

A card from Mr. and Mrs. Allen Worcester of Sun Lodge Colony saying they are having a wonderful time in Hawaii. They will be returning home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Estep of the Sun Lodge Colony will be in and out all summer. They enjoy the warm weather and swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton have gone to Europe for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bireley and son, Bill, and his small friend, Kort King, are in their Sun Lodge for a week.

Good news has been received from Mrs. Leland Quick that she is fully recovered from her recent illness.

A group of old time residents who have gathered every fourth of July for several years have named themselves "The Pioneers." The home of Ralph Caplingers was the locale this year for "brunch" and the Wilber Bears entertained the group for dinner. Games and cards were enjoyed during the afternoon and evening. The members of this group include the Ralph Caplingers, Robert Brooks, Belle Keightley, Edna Value, Farn Barry, Wilber Bears, J. B. SCHULTZ, Werner Gubitz, Roy Verniers, Don Carnes, Mon Wallgrens, the Ray Jones and Dr. and Mrs. Edward Ruge.

Mr. and Mrs. Boynton Jones have returned here after spending a week in San Francisco at the Lion's International Convention. They report a wonderful as well as interesting session.

Mr. and Mrs. Partick Kelly and children of Covina spent a week with Major and Mrs. Slater. Yvonne is the daughter of the Slaters.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Trumble were in charge of the "freak" side-shows that proved a great attraction at the "Fun Fair." The barker was Cliff Henderson and John Outcault; "Fat Laides," Jerry Malone and Ercel Ostler; "Lady in Bath," Hal Kapp; "wild man from Borneo," Eddie Azdair; "Bearded Ladies," Ben Constantino and Don Nielson; "Tattooed Lady," Madeline Nielson and Mrs. Phil Franklin; "Hochle Koochie" dancer, Jim Griffin. Music was furnished by Ed Gardner.

William Beck, son of the Clarence Becks, and Miss Barbara Miller of Santa Barbara eloped to Las Vegas June 22. These young people are students at Woodbury College. Bill is taking some special post graduate work and Barbara has another year before graduating. Bill has been at home the past six weeks so the marriage was a big surprise to both families. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller of Santa Barbara.

Disneyland Trip Set for Boys Club Members

Forty lucky youngsters from the Palm Springs Boys Club were today offered a treat to Walt Disney's famous Disneyland July 31. Club directors authorized a day-long Disneyland program for 40 club members. The youngsters will travel to Disneyland, via bus, enjoying a lunch and 10 free rides each before they return.

Club officials, however, said the trip is open only to members who joined the club prior to July 4. In order to make the trip, members must sign up no later than 3 p.m., July 19.

Youngsters wishing to make the trip may give their names to George School, club summer director, only during regular scheduled club activities at the Youth Center, skating rink, Village Theater or High School swimming pool.

Anthony Pools May be Installed In One Week

Village builders of Anthony Splash Swimming Pools today reported that pool customers can look forward to speedier installation than ever before—even before their new homes are ready for occupancy.

William Barton, Anthony installation contractor for the desert area, said that normal installation time is now one week, with the "possibility" of three-day pool installation.

Barton pointed out that potential homeowners will find it unnecessary to wait until their new homes are completed before installing the Anthony pools.

The molded fiberglass shell of the pool is impervious to weather. It will not crack or deteriorate in desert heat, Barton said. He noted that Splash pools already in service may be viewed here in communities ranging from Desert Hot Springs to Palm Desert.

Mounted Police To Meet July 10

Palm Springs Mounted Police will hold their regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m., Wednesday, in the Los Compadres Clubhouse. The board of directors will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m.

At Long Last

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (UP) — It took 17 years, but Mrs. Adrienne Lavalie, 34, of Woonsocket finally has received her bachelor's degree. In 1940 she enrolled at the Providence College School of Adult Education. The other day she got her degree after her college career had been interrupted repeatedly by marriage, motherhood and household responsibilities.

CONTINENTAL BUFFET at the Palm House has proven very popular since it was started last week. It is served nightly from 5 to 10 p.m., under a new summer policy. Pat Barbara's music adds to the enjoyment, during dining or for dancing. Above at the buffet

Safeway Sets Earnings Record

The highest mid-year net earnings in its history were reported today by Safeway Stores, a record derived from less than one-and-a-half cents out of each dollar of customers purchases.

Consolidated net earnings after taxes at mid-year amounted to $3.41 per common share for more than 45,000 stockholder investors, Safeway President Robert A. Magowan announced today.

THE AVERAGE number of shares of common stock outstanding during the first 24 weeks ended June 15 was 3,896,758—almost 10 per cent more than the 3,566,451 average outstanding during the same period of 1956 when net earnings per share amounted to $2.51.

"Our improved profits largely resulted from increased sales coupled with effective control of operating expenses despite the fact that costs of merchandise to us continued to rise," Magowan said.

"IMPORTANT, ALSO," he continued, "was the marked improvement of inventory turnover throughout our operations. Increased sales, of course, partly resulted from our successful program for store replacement and new construction which got off to a good start this year."

Comparing results for the first 24 weeks of 1957 with those for the same period of last year, net income after taxes was $13,978,010—over 40 per cent larger than the $9,925,271 of 1956. Safeway's total sales for the same 24-week period of 1957 amounted to $950,518,879, and increased 6.65 per cent over 1956 when mid-year sales totaled $891,252,363.

Alert Scouts

OMAHA — (UP) — Four Minneapolis youths were convicted of petty larceny after two Boy Scouts complained that they stole their lunch and camping equipment and drove off. The Scouts, having no pencil or paper, scratched the license number of the car in the dust.

Highway Patrol Warns Drivers of Trailer Laws

Many motorists towing boat trailers with passenger cars and pick-up trucks are violating traffic laws, according to the California Highway Patrol.

"This is probably due to lack of adequate knowledge of the rules and regulations particularly by new owners of small boat trailers," Patrol Commissioner, B. R. Caldwell stated.

ENFORCEMENT action will be taken against all violators, therefore the following are essential points to be reviewed by persons towing these trailers with passenger cars or commercial vehicles weighing under 4,000 pounds.

1. Maximum speed is 45 miles an hour unless a lower speed is posted.
2. One red tail lamp, a license plate lamp, one red reflector and a stop lamp are required on each vehicle.
3. Clearance lamps are necessary if the vehicle or load exceeds 80 inches in width.
4. Mechanical or electric turn signals are required if hand and arm signals are not clearly visible from the rear.
5. HITCHES MUST be properly and securely mounted, with a legal safety chain to control trailer if hitch fails.
6. The trailer is required to follow substantially in path of towing vehicle without whipping or swerving.
7. The towing vehicle must be equipped with a mirror reflecting a view of the highway 200 feet to the rear.
8. The license plate on the trailer is required to be mounted not less than 12 inches nor more than 60 inches from the ground when the trailer is unladen.

9. Registration card or temporary permit must accompany the trailer.

10. Combination of vehicles must be equipped with brakes capable of stopping in 40 feet from a speed of 20 miles per hour.

Miss Universe Judges Named

A panel of nine world-renowned judges have been named to select Miss Universe and Miss United States of America when the sixth annual Miss Universe Pageant opens in Long Beach Thursday.

Headed by Vincent Trotta, dean of beauty judges, the group includes four Latin-Americans, a Japanese, Frenchman, and two other prominent Americans.

They include Jose Maria Villone of Buenos Aires, Argentina; Armando R. Maribona, Havana, Cuba; Lois J. Swanson, associate dean of students at Long Beach State College; Alberto Vaz, who was born in Araiquipa, Peru; Mrs. Miyoko Yanagida, Tokyo, Japan; and Reinaldo Herrerra Usilar of Caracas, Venezuela.

Reflective street name signs, which can be seen about a block away at night, are one of the latest developments designed to reduce automobile and traffic jams, according to traffic authorities.

5 Area Scouts Are En Route To Jamboree

(Editor's Note: David Michel of Palm Springs will report on activities of local boys attending the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge. The following is his first dispatch).

The 1957 Jamboree Troop 5 (composed of Riverside County Scouts) started on its way without any mishaps last week. The first day out there were several stops to take on provisions for the train, and to give the boys exercise.

The first stop after leaving Riverside was at Winslow, Ariz., and the next at Belen, N.M., along the Rio Grande River. The boys have been rising at 6:30, and retiring at 10.

On the trip from Palm Springs are Hilton McCabe, David Michel and Tom Larstead, and from Palm Desert, Bill Ring and Ray Johnson.

On the train the boys are kept busy by working on neckerchief slides, reading and playing chess. During the afternoons the boys present skits and sing songs during an assembly.

Contractors Elect Tonight

Coachella Valley Contractors Association has scheduled its annual meeting and election of officers for tonight, Tuesday, at the Los Compadres clubhouse, starting at 8 p.m.

President Manny Ryan urged all members to attend, as well as prospective new members.

Besides election of officers, the group will determine its advertising policy for the coming year.

EVERYONE'S GOING TO BERMUDA...

Bermuda Dunes THAT IS

An angry man is Sylvester T. By,
Who today was sold a piece of "blue sky."
He'd stepped in a showroom—out of the rain,
Was sold a new car before he could explain!
How he hated the styling—so high and square
And in new features it was really bare.
"I got a real bargain—the buy of my life—
But how do I ever convince my own wife?"

Moral: You're paying for a new car...make sure you get one!

When you buy a new car, put your money on tomorrow—not yesterday. Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field. Should you invest in high, boxy styling when Dodge offers the low, low look of tomorrow? Should you invest in outmoded coil springs when Dodge offers new Torsion-Aire Ride? Should you invest in an old-fashioned lever-type transmission when Dodge offers the ease of Push-Button Driving? In other things, too—engines, brakes, interiors—Dodge is years ahead. So put your money on tomorrow. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!
